

IEEE REFERENCING AND CITATION SYSTEM

IN-TEXT CITATION FORMAT

This is an example of a paragraph with in-text citations using the apalike BibTeX style. Here is a reference to a journal article with a single author [1], to a journal article with two authors [2] and three authors [3], and to a book with four authors [4].

- [1] D. R. Cox, "Regression models and life-tables," J. R. Stat. Soc. Series B Stat. Methodol., vol. 34, no. 2, pp. 187–220, Jun. 1972.
- [2] E. G. Bligh and W. J. Dyer, "A rapid method of total lipid extraction and purification," Can. J. Biochem. Physiol., vol. 37, no. 8, pp. 911–917, Aug. 1959.
- [3] J. P. Perdew, K. Burke, and M. Ernzerhof, "Generalized gradient approximation made simple," Phys. Rev. Lett., vol. 77, no. 18, pp. 3865–3868, Oct. 1996.
- [4] W. H. Press, S. A. Teukolsky, W. T. Vetterling, and B. P. Flannery, Numerical recipes: the art of scientific computing, 3rd ed. Cambridge, UK: Cambridge University Press, Sep. 2007.

DIRECT CITATION vs. INDIRECT CITATION

Indirect citation takes the idea of an author's quote and puts it into your own words while still giving credit to the author. In the IEEE citation system, indirect citations are stated as [1], [2], [3], etc. The number denotes the reading source as per the reference list

On the other hand, direct citation uses an author's exact pattern of words, which are surrounded by quotation marks. In the IEEE citation system, direct citations are stated as [1, p. 31], [2, p. 45], [3, pp.37-38], etc. The number denotes the reading source as per the reference list, and p./pp. denotes the page number(s).

BASIC FORMAT TO REFERENCE A BOOK

[#] Author(s) Initial(s). Surname(s), Title of the Book, xth ed. City of Publisher, (U.S. State or Country if the City is not 'well known'): Publisher, Year of Publication, pp. xxx–xxx.

Referencing elements to cite:

- [#] Reference number (matching the in-text citation number)
- Author's first initial. Author's second initial, if provided. Author's last name
- Title: Subtitle of the Book in italics. Important words of the title are capitalized, but not minor ones, such as 'and', 'of', 'on', etc.
- If the book is a second or subsequent edition or volume, include the edition and volume statement, e.g. 5th ed, vol. 2.
- Place of publication. Refer to Place of publication for information on the correct format of locations
- Publisher
- Year of publication.
 - If the publication date of the work cannot be determined, provide the abbreviation n.d. in the place of the year in the publication details eg. n.d.or [1690?]
- Page number(s), cited as p. for a single page or pp. for multiple pages.

Examples:

[1] R. Merchant and S. Saxena, Engineering. Chicago, IL: Britannica Educational Publishing, 2016.

[2] R. E. Ziemer and W. H. Tranter, Principles of Communications: Systems, Modulation, and Noise, 7th ed. Hoboken, NJ: Wiley, 2015, pp. 13–17.

BASIC FORMAT TO REFERENCE AN AUTHORED CHAPTER IN A BOOK

[#] Chapter Author(s) Initial(s). Surname(s), "Title of chapter in the book," in Title of the Published Book: Subtitle of the book, xth ed. City of Publisher, (U.S. State or Country if the City is not 'well known'): Publisher, Year of Publication, ch. x [chapter number], or sec. x [section number], pp. xxx–xxx [page range].

Referencing elements to cite:

- [#] Reference number (matching the in-text citation number)
- Author's first initial. Author's second initial, if provided. Author's last name •

Title of chapter in the book using “_” marks

- Add “in” and then Title: Subtitle of the Book in italics. Important words of the title are capitalized, but not minor ones, such as ‘and’, ‘of’, ‘on’, etc.
- If the book is a second or subsequent edition, include the edition statement, e.g. 5th ed.
- Place of publication.
- Publisher
- Year of publication.
 - If the publication date of the work cannot be determined, provide the abbreviation n.d. in the place of the year in the publication details eg. n.d.or [1690?]
- Chapter number
- If the book chapter belongs to a certain section, include the name of the section, e.g. sec. 3.
- Page number(s), cited as p. for a single page or pp. for multiple pages.

Example:

[3] N. B. Vargafik, J. A. Wiebelt, and J. F. Malloy, "Radiative transfer," in Convective Heat, 2nd ed. Melbourne: Engineering Education Australia, 2011, ch. 9, pp. 379–398.

[4] J. Doe and J. Smith, "Introduction to Deep Learning," in Advances in Deep Learning, 2nd ed., New York, NY, USA: Deep Learning Press, 2023, ch. 1, sec. 1.1, pp. 1-20.

BASIC FORMAT TO REFERENCE AN EDITED CHAPTER IN A BOOK

[#] Chapter Author(s) Initial(s). Surname(s), "Title of chapter in the book," in Title of the Published Book: Subtitle of the Book, xth ed., vol. x. Editor(s) Initial(s). Surname(s), Ed. or Eds. City of Publisher, (U.S. State or Country if the City is not 'well known'): Publisher, Year of Publication, ch. x [chapter number], or sec. x [section number], pp. xxx–xxx [page range].

Referencing elements to cite:

- [#] Reference number (matching the in-text citation number)
 - Author's first initial. Author's second initial, if provided. Author's last name •
- Title of chapter in the book using “_” marks
- Add “in” and then Title: Subtitle of the Book in italics. Important words of the title are capitalized, but not minor ones, such as ‘and’, ‘of’, ‘on’, etc.
 - If the book is a second or subsequent edition and volume, include the edition and volume statement, e.g. 5th ed, vol. 3.
 - Add Ed. or Eds. after the editors' names and initials of the book, for example, C. Baird and C. Ludlow, Eds., Design of ...
 - Place of publication
 - Publisher
 - Year of publication.
 - If the publication date of the work cannot be determined, provide the abbreviation n.d. in the place of the year in the publication details eg. n.d.or [1690?]
 - Chapter number
 - If the book chapter belongs to a certain section, include the name of the section, e.g. sec. 3.

- Page number(s), cited as p. for a single page or pp. for multiple pages.

Examples:

[4] H. C. Hottel and R. Siegel, "Film condensation," in Handbook of Heat Transfer, 2nd ed. W. C. McAdams, Ed. New York: McGraw-Hill, 2011, ch. 9, pp. 78–99.

[5] J. Doe and J. Smith, "Introduction to Deep Learning," in Advances in Deep Learning, 2nd ed., M. Johnson and E. Clark, Eds., New York, NY, USA: Deep Learning Press, 2023, ch. 1, sec. 1.1, pp. 1-20.

BASIC FORMAT TO REFERENCE AN ELECTRONIC JOURNAL ARTICLE

[#] Author(s) Initial(s). Surname(s), "Title of the electronic article," Full or Abbrev. Title of Journal, vol. x, no. x, pp. xxx–xxx, Abbrev. Month. Year. Accessed: Abbrev. Month. Day, Year. doi:xxxxx. [Online]. Available: site/path/file (database or URL)

Referencing elements to cite:

- [#] Reference number (matching the in-text citation number)
- Author's first initial. Author's second initial, if provided. Author's last name
- Title of the article in double quotation marks, in lowercase
- Title of the Journal, in italics (full or abbreviated). Important words of the title are capitalized, but not minor ones, such as 'and', 'of', 'on', etc.

❖ Note. While IEEE generally prefers the use of standard abbreviations for journal titles, the practice of including full journal names can vary. In some cases, full names are used for clarity, especially if the journal is not widely recognized by its abbreviation. Additionally, the decision might depend on the specific guidelines or preferences of the publication, institution, or author.

- Volume, issue, and page number(s). Page number(s), cited as p. for a single page or pp. for multiple pages.
- Abbreviated month and year of publication. Refer to the Abbreviated month section for further information.
- Accessed: Month, Day, Year. Where there is a DOI available, the Access Date can be omitted.

- DOI (Digital Object Identifier), if available. It is preferable to provide a DOI (Digital Object Identifier), if available.
- [Online]
- Available: site/path/file location of an article, which can be a library database provider or a full URL.
 - ❖ For electronic resources found on the Internet include the full URL

Example:

[1] C. Chudzicki, M. F. Maghrebi, and M. Gullans, "Entanglement dynamics in long-range harmonic oscillators," Journal of Mathematical Physics, vol. 56, no. 12, p. 121701, 2015. [Online]. Available: <https://doi.org/10.1063/1.4936322>. [Accessed: July 05, 2024].

BASIC FORMAT TO REFERENCE A PRINT JOURNAL ARTICLE

[#] Author(s) Initial(s). Surname(s), "Title of the article," Full or Abbrev. Title of Journal, vol. x, no. x, pp. xxx–xxx, Abbrev. Month. Year, doi:xxxxxx (if available).

Referencing elements to cite:

- [#] Reference number (matching the in-text citation number)
- Author's first initial. Author's second initial, if provided. Author's last name
- Title of the article in double quotation marks, in lowercase
- Title of the Journal, in italics (full or abbreviated). Important words of the title are capitalized, but not minor ones, such as 'and', 'of', 'on', etc.
 - ❖ Note. While IEEE generally prefers the use of standard abbreviations for journal titles, the practice of including full journal names can vary. In some cases, full names are used for clarity, especially if the journal is not widely recognized by its abbreviation. Additionally, the decision might depend on the specific guidelines or preferences of the publication, institution, or author.
- Volume, issue, and page number(s). Page number(s), cited as p. for a single page or pp. for multiple pages.

- Abbreviated month and year of publication. Refer to the Abbreviated month section for further information
- DOI (Digital Object Identifier), if available.

Example:

[1] C. Chudzicki, M. F. Maghrebi, and M. Gullans, "Entanglement dynamics in long-range harmonic oscillators," Journal of Mathematical Physics, vol. 56, no. 12, p. 121701, 2015.

BASIC FORMAT TO REFERENCE A CONFERENCE PAPER

[#] Author(s) Initial(s). Surname(s). (Date). Title. Presented at Abbreviated Conf. title.
[Type of Medium]. Available: site/path/file

Referencing elements to cite:

- [#] Reference number (matching the in-text citation number)
- Author's first initial. Author's second initial, if provided. Author's last name
- Title of the paper in lowercase, in double quotation marks
- presented at abbreviated name of the conference in italics.
 - ❖ In IEEE conference references, the abbreviations can be contractions of the word or simply initials of the important words, depending on how well-known the conference is by a particular name. In most cases, however, standard abbreviated contractions are used, e.g. Intl. for international, Phys. for Physics, etc.
- Place of publication. Refer to Place of publication for information on the correct format of locations
- Include volume and issue numbers if available.
- Year of publication
- Page number(s), cited as p. for a single page or pp. for multiple pages.

(ICMLA), Miami, FL, USA. [Online]. Available:
<https://ieeexplore.ieee.org/document/9356281>

BASIC FORMAT TO REFERENCE CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS (ONLINE & PRINT)

[#] Author(s) Initial(s). Surname(s), "Title of paper," in Abbreviated Name of Conference Proceedings, (location of the conference is optional), year, pp. xxxxxx. [Online]. Available: <http://www.url.com>

Referencing elements to cite:

- [#] Reference number (matching the in-text citation number)
- Author's first initial. Author's second initial, if provided. Author's last name •

Title of the paper in lowercase, in double quotation marks

- Abbreviated name of conference proceedings in italics.

❖ In IEEE conference references, the abbreviations can be contractions of the word or simply initials of the important words, depending on how well-known the conference is by a particular name. In most cases, however, standard abbreviated contractions are used, e.g. Intl. for international, Phys. for Physics, etc.

- Place of publication.
- Include volume and issue numbers if available.
- Year of publication
- Page number(s), cited as p. for a single page or pp. for multiple pages. •

[Online] if the paper is published online (skip if in print format)

- URL and DOI if the paper is published online (skip if in print format)

Example:

BASIC FORMAT TO REFERENCE PHD/MS DISSERTATION

[#] Author(s) Initial(s). Surname(s), "Title of thesis or dissertation," Type of thesis (Ph.D. dissertation, or M.S. thesis), Abbrev. Dept., Abbrev. Univ., City of University, (U.S. State or Country if the City is not 'well known'), Year of Publication. [Type of medium]. Available: site/path/file

Referencing elements to cite:

- [#] Reference number (matching the in-text citation number)
- Author's first initial. Author's second initial, if provided. Author's last name
- Title of dissertation, in lowercase and double quotation marks
- Ph.D. dissertation, or a M.S. thesis
- Abbreviation of the Academic Department, Faculty or College that awarded the Ph.D. or the M.S. thesis using standard abbreviations e.g. Dept. of Soft. Engg., Dept. of Appl. Phys.
- Abbreviation of the University using standard abbreviations e.g. NED Univ. of Engg. and Tech.
- City of University
- State of City Abbreviation (if available)
- Year of Publication
- [Online] if available online (skip if sourced physically)
- Available: site/path/file (skip if sourced physically)
