

Chapter # 06 (Human Rights / Huqooq-al-Ibaad):

Protection of Life_ V. 32 Al-Maidah

مِنْ أَجْلِ ذَلِكَ كَتَبْنَا عَلَى بَنِي إِسْرَائِيلَ أَنَّهُ مَنْ قَتَلَ نَفْسًا بِغَيْرِ نَفْسٍ أَوْ فَسَادٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَكَأَنَّمَا قَتَلَ النَّاسَ جَمِيعًا وَمَنْ أَحْيَاهَا فَكَأَنَّمَا أَحْيَا النَّاسَ جَمِيعًا وَلَقَدْ جَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُنَا بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ ثُمَّ إِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِنْهُمْ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ فِي الْأَرْضِ لَمُسْرِفُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾
(المائدة:32)

Key Aspects

- The subject matter of the verse is that human beings should respect the sanctity of other human beings.
- The phrase مِنْ أَجْلِ ذَلِكَ refers to the preceding verses, in which the tale of the two sons of Adam was mentioned. Events of the past and accounts of earlier peoples carry many lessons and wise counsels within their fold. That is the real essence of history.
- This story of the two sons of Adam (A.S.) is being narrated here in the same style. It has many lessons and good counsels for the present and future generations; and under them, mention has been made of many religious injunctions.
- In the previous verses, mentioned there was the command of Jihad given to the Ban; Isra'il and how cowardly and evasive they turned out to be in response. Set in contrast, the present story condemns unjust killing and the destruction it brings in its wake. The purpose is to bring the people to adhere to moderation and balance in this matter, for the way it is an error to cringe and back out from fighting and killing to uphold the truth and put an end to falsehood, similarly, starting to kill and fight unjustly amounts to a stock destruction of one's material and spiritual life both in the present world and in the Hereafter.
- Allah says, كَتَبْنَا عَلَى بَنِي إِسْرَائِيلَ because the son of Adam killed his brother in transgression and aggression, Allah considered it necessary to enact a law for all, more particularly for the Bani Isra'el that unless it is in retribution for an unjustified murder or for having caused mischief the murder of a single man shall be tantamount to the murder of the entire mankind, similarly saving of a human life from death by accident or by a criminal is equal to saving the entire mankind.
- The later part of the verse denotes that even after the general law was enacted by Allah and expounded by the prophets whom Allah had invested with special signs and credentials for the Bani Isra'el, good many of them transgressed the limits prescribed by Allah and caused disorder and blood shed in the land; and when the prophets concerned attempted to check and reform them, they themselves were murdered without the least justification.
- This verse chastises and criticizes those who commit the prohibitions, after knowing that they are prohibited from indulging in them. The Jews of al Madinah such as Banu Qurayzah, an Nadir and Qaynuqa, used to fight along with either Khazraj or Aws, when war would erupt between them during the time of Jahiliyyah (days of ignorance). When these wars would end, the Jews would ransom those who were captured and pay the blood money for those who were killed.
- Mentioned in the previous verses (27-32) was the event of the killing of Habil (Abel) and its gravity as a crime. In the proceeding verses (33-34), there is a description of the legal punishments for killing, plundering, robbery and theft (execution, crucifixion, maiming, banishment or imprisonment) for those who wage war against Allah and His Apostle.

- The punishment of crimes which the Holy Qur'an has promulgated after having determined it to be the Right of Allah is called the "Hudud," and that which it has ordained as the Right of the Servant of Allah is known as "Qisas," and crimes the punishment of which has not been determined by it are called, "Ta'zir."

V: 29 Al Nisa

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَأْكُلُوا أَمْوَالَكُمْ بَيْنَكُمْ بِالْبَاطِلِ إِلَّا أَنْ تَكُونَ تِجَارَةً عَنْ تَرَاضٍ مِنْكُمْ وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ بِكُمْ رَحِيمًا ﴿٢٩﴾ (النساء: 29)

Explanation

- The present verse bid the protection of human life and property and forbid any uncalled for intrusion into that area.
- The word literally means “do not eat”, But in common usage it means do not usurp the property of another person by false means.
- In common parlance, the unauthorized use of what is owned by someone else is indicated by the idiom, 'eating up', even though it may not be eatable.
- The word, "batil" which has been translated as "false means all other forms which are impermissible and are forbidden by the Shari'ah. Included there under are theft, robbery, usurpation, breach of trust, bribery, interest, gambling and all false transactions. (al-Bahr-al-Muhit)
- The first part of verse 29 explained above declares that devouring the other person's property by false and disapproved methods is unlawful. Then, in order to exempt permissible methods from the ruling of unlawfulness, it was said in the second part of the same v e r s e إِلَّا أَنْ تَكُونَ تِجَارَةً عَنْ تَرَاضٍ مِنْكُمْ w h i c h means that the wealth and property of others which has been acquired through trade by mutual consent is not unlawful.

Although there are, besides trade, several other means and methods which are equally permissible - for example, borrowing, gift, charity, inheritance - but, generally the most recognized and commonly practiced form of one person's property passing into the possession-and control of someone else is no other than trade. Then, trade is generally understood to be a buying and selling activity. But, according to al-Tafsir al-Mazhari, dealings related with service, labour and tenancy are also included in trade, because in bai' (sale) what is acquired is maal (property) for maal, while in ijara one gets ma'al for service and labour. Trade covers both.

- According to a narration from Sayyidni Mu'adh ibn Jabal (R.A.) the Holy Prophet (SAWW) said: "The cleanest earning is the earning of the traders, on condition that, when they talk, they do not lie; and when they are asked to hold something in trust, they commit no breach of trust; and when they buy something from someone, they do not start finding faults in it; and when they sell their own stuff, they do not praise it (unrealistically); and when they have a debt to pay, they do not evade payment; and when they have a debt to recover from someone, they do not harass him."(Isfahani,as quoted by Mazhari)

- The words "unless it be a trade with your mutual consent" in verse 29 lay down two conditions for the validity of a transaction through which the property of another person may lawfully be acquired. Firstly, it must be a transaction of trade which requires exchange of properties. Therefore, the transactions of gambling, speculation and usury or the transactions of sale where the commodity does not exist are forbidden and are not valid in Shari'ah, because these transactions cannot be termed as trade, even though they are effected in the name of trade. Secondly, the transaction must be effected with the mutual consent of the parties. Therefore, if there is trade, where the object of sale does exist, but the mutual consent of the parties is not there, even then, the sale is invalid and impermissible. Thus, these two forms are included under "eating up each other's property by false means".
- Muslim jurists call the first form, al bai' al-batil', while the second form is given the name, 'al-bai' al-fasid'.
- To explain the first condition, we can say that trade is the name of the exchange of one commodity with the other. Having commodity on one side and having no commodity against it is not trade. It is deception. The same holds good for interest-based transactions where the amount of interest is a return for the time allowed in a loan - and this 'time' is no 'commodity'. The same thing happens in speculation and gambling. Here, the commodity does exist on one side, but the existence of a commodity against it is doubtful. Similarly, there are transactions based on forward trading where the commodity does not exist but a deal is made for its sale / purchase. Here you have commodity on one side and nothing but a promise on the other. Therefore, this is just not trade. In fact, this is deception and a kind of fraud. Therefore, Muslim jurists have ruled it to be al-bai' al-batil), a void transaction of sale.
- The explanation as given here eliminates all impermissible forms of trading. As for the second condition, it covers a situation where a property is being exchanged for another property. Both do exist, but the transaction of exchange did not take place with mutual consent. Although this is a trade, yet it is a wrong and invalid type of trade. Therefore, it has been called 'fasid' (invalid) and is not allowed.
- The third sentence of the first verse (29) says وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ which has been literally translated here as 'and do not kill yourselves.' According to the consensus of commentators, this includes suicide; as well as, killing each other unjustly. The first sentence of the verse described the property rights of human beings at large and stressed that they be guarded. The present sentence, the third one we have before us right now, covers their right of life. Property has been mentioned in this verse earlier than 'life', probably because injustice and negligence are very common in matters relating to property rights. No doubt, unjust killing is far more grave, yet customarily its frequency is lower. Hence, it comes later.

- Verse 29 closes with these words إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ بِكُمْ رَحِيمًا which means that the injunctions given in this verse &- 'do not eat up each other's property by false means' or 'do not kill anyone unjustly' -- are injunctions that come to you as Divine Mercy, so that you can take your guard against falling into these misdeeds and thereby become liable to punishment in the life to come, and also that you may stay safe from punishments which could afflict you right here in the present life.

V:11-12 Al Hujraat

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا يَسْخَرُ قَوْمٌ مِنْ قَوْمٍ عَسَىٰ أَنْ يَكُونُوا خَيْرًا مِنْهُمْ وَلَا نِسَاءٌ مِنْ نِسَاءٍ عَسَىٰ أَنْ يَكُنَّ خَيْرًا مِنْهُنَّ ۚ وَلَا تَلْمِزُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ وَلَا تَنَابَزُوا بِالْأَلْقَابِ ۚ بِئْسَ الْإِسْمُ الْفُسُوقُ بَعْدَ الْإِيمَانِ ۚ وَمَنْ لَمْ يَتُبْ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿١١﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اجْتَنِبُوا كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الظَّنِّ إِنَّ بَعْضَ الظَّنِّ إِثْمٌ ۖ وَلَا تَجَسَّسُوا ۚ وَلَا يَغْتَبِ بَعْضُكُم بَعْضًا ۚ أَيُحِبُّ أَحَدُكُمْ أَنْ يَأْكُلَ لَحْمَ أَخِيهِ مَيْتًا فَكَرِهْتُمُوهُ ۚ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ تَوَّابٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿١٢﴾ (الحجرات: 11-12)

Explanation

- The beginning part of this chapter laid down the Prophet's (SAWW) rights and the etiquettes to be observed when dealing with him. Then the Holy Qur'an has started mentioning the mutual rights and good manners for the general body of Muslims to be observed among them.
- The verse 11 and 12 mentions the rights and etiquettes to be observed between individuals. Thus the verse 11 prohibits three social evils: [1] ridiculing one another; [2] finding fault with one another; and [3] reviling one another with nicknames.
- And verse 12 prohibits three more things: [1] zann [unfounded suspicion], [2] tajassus [spying, looking secretly into the faults of others]; and [3] ghibah [backbiting, speaking ill of a person behind his back which if he heard would hurt or injure his feelings].
- According to Qurtubi, mocking or scoffing does not only connote mocking with the tongue, but it also implies mimicking someone, making pointed references to him, laughing at his words, his works, his appearance, his dress or calling people's attention to some of his defects, so that they may laugh at him. Mocking includes all of this.
- The Qur'an, however, generally employs the word qawm for both men and women, but here it is specifically used for men in contradistinction to the word nisa' which specifically refers to women. Here both men and women are reminded that mocking one another is a disdainful and evil act. The actual reason for making separate mention of the two sexes is that Islam does not allow free intermingling of the two sexes. Ridiculing each other generally occurs where there is such an intermingling. Therefore, in a Muslim society it is inconceivable that men would mock a woman or women would mock a man in an intermingling situation.

- The next thing that is prohibited in the verse is lamz which connotes to find fault with someone or to upbraid him. It means when you find fault with others and upbraid them, others will find fault with you and upbraid you, because no man is normally free from any fault. Scholars have suggested that the satisfaction, well-being and happiness of man lies in examining his own faults and finding ways of mending them.
- The third thing that is prohibited in the verse is reviling one another with nicknames which are offensive to them, e.g. calling a person lame, hands cropped, blind or one-eyed; or referring to him by other offensive nicknames. Sayyidna Abii Jabirah Ansari (R.A.) says, "This verse was revealed in connection with us. When we migrated to Madinah, most of us had two or three names. Some of them were popularized in order to denigrate, defame or belittle the bearer of the name. The Holy Prophet (SAWW) was not aware of this situation; as a result he sometimes called them by one of these offensive names unwittingly. The noble Companions informed the Prophet that the name offends the bearer of that name. This verse was revealed on that occasion." SayyidnZ Ibn-'Abbas (R.A.) says that prohibition of tanabuz bil-alqab means that if a person committed a sin or performed an evil deed from which he repented and mended his ways, it is unlawful for anyone to call him by denigrating names.
- Zann primarily denotes assumption on probable evidence. In the first instance, the Qur'an sets down "Abstain from many of the suspicions." and gives reason for that: "some suspicion are sins.". This shows that not all types of suspicion is a sin. Thus it is incumbent on the readers to investigate which type is a sin, so that they may avoid it. If the uneasy feeling and the conviction that something is wrong, someone is guilty, or some danger is afoot is based on partial evidence, and not confirmed by out-and-out evidence, it is not permitted to act on it. Qurtubi says that in this context Zann connotes "accusation", that is, a charge of wrongdoing, as with guilt, crime, offense or blame without any strong evidence. And In this context, Zann by common consent of scholars stands for thinking ill of a Muslim without any concrete proof.
- The fifth social evil that is prohibited in the verse is tajassus, spying or prying secretly into the faults of others. Bayan-ul-Quran interprets that tajassus [spying] and tahassus [searching] include the sense of listening to people without their permission when they are talking, or eavesdropping at their doors. However, if there is an apprehension that some member of the Muslim community may be harmed by some mischief-makers, it is permitted for others to spy to protect the innocent and peaceful people, and search furtively for the intentions and conspiracies of such people who are a danger to the society.

- The sixth social evil this verse prohibits is ghibah [backbiting]. This connotes speaking ill of a person behind his back which if he heard would hurt or injure his feelings, even if what was said about him was the truth; if what was said about him was untruth, it is slander or false accusation. The prohibition of slander is prohibited elsewhere in the Quran . In the definition of backbiting the phrase "behind his back / in his absence" appears. This does not mean that it is permissible to say hurtful things in the presence of somebody. This may not be backbiting, but it certainly falls under lamz which is prohibited in the preceding verse.
- Sayyidna Abu Sa'id and Jabir & report that the Holy Prophet (SAWW) has said: "Backbiting is worse than adultery. The noble Companions inquired: 'How so, Messenger of Allah?' He replied: 'A person may commit fornication, repent of it and his sin is forgiven. But the sin of backbiting is not forgiven unless the injured party forgives.'" [Transmitted by Tirmidhi and Abu Diiwid, a s cited in Mazhari].

Verse 13 of Al Hujra't

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِنَّا خَلَقْنَاكُمْ مِنْ ذَكَرٍ وَأُنْثَىٰ وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا ۚ إِنَّ أَكْرَمَكُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ أَتْقَاكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ خَبِيرٌ ﴿١٣﴾ (الحجرات: 13)

- Circumstances of Revelation: This verse was revealed on the occasion of the conquest of Makkah. When it was time for prayer, the Holy Prophet (SAWW) asked Sayyidna Bilal R.A. to call the adhan.

Explanation:

- In the preceding verses, six social evils in connection with human and Islamic rights were prohibited, and principles of good manners were laid down to be observed in social life.
- The current verse proceeds to set down the basis of an all-comprehensive and all-pervading principle of human equality. It has firmly laid the axe at the false and foolish notions of superiority, born of racial arrogance or national conceit. All men have been created from a single male ['Adam] and a single female [Hawwa'] as human beings. Therefore, all people are the descendants of 'Adam and Hawwa' and have been declared equal in the sight of Allah.
- No one is allowed to take pride nor to degrade others on the basis of pigment of his skin, the amount of wealth he possesses or by his rank or by his social status, descent or pedigree, but by his moral uprightness and the way he discharges his obligations to Allah and man. The entire human race is but one family.

- Division into nations, tribes and sub-tribes of all sizes, and races is meant only to give a better identification of one another.
- The word Shu'ub is the plural of Sha'b which refers to a large group of persons of the same origin, (like a nation). Then it consists of clans and tribes. The largest group in this arrangement is called sa'b, and the smallest is called 'ashirah. Abu Ruwaq says that the words Shu'ub and Sha'b refer to non-Arab nations whose lineage is not preserved, whilst qabeil refers to Arabs whose lineage is well-preserved.

Verse no 256 Al Baqar

لَا إِكْرَاهَ فِي الدِّينِ ۚ قَدْ تَبَيَّنَ الرُّشْدُ مِنَ الْغَيِّ ۚ فَمَنْ يَكْفُرْ بِالطَّاغُوتِ وَيُؤْمِنْ بِاللَّهِ فَقَدِ اسْتَمْسَكَ بِالْعُرْوَةِ الْوُثْقَىٰ
لَا انْفِصَامَ لَهَا ۗ وَاللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿البقرة: 256﴾

- Context of Revelation: “It was reported that; the Ansar were the reason behind revealing this Ayah, although its indication is general in meaning. Ibn Jarir recorded that Ibn Abbas said \(that before Islam\), "When \(an Ansar\) woman would not bear children who would live, she would vow that if she gives birth to a child who remains alive, she would raise him as a Jew. When Banu An-Nadir \(the Jewish tribe\) were evacuated \(from Al-Madinah\), some of the children of the Ansar were being raised among them, and the Ansar said, 'We will not abandon our children.' Allah revealed, \(There is no compulsion in religion. Verily, the right path has become distinct from the wrong path\)." Abu Dawud and An-Nasa'i also recorded this Hadith.
- Explanation: (There is no compulsion in religion), meaning, "Do not force anyone to become Muslim, for Islam is plain and clear, and its proof and evidence are plain and clear. Therefore, there is no need to force anyone to embrace Islam. Rather, whoever Allah directs to Islam opens his heart for it and enlightens his mind, will embrace Islam with certainty. Whoever Allah blinds his heart and seals his hearing and sight, then he will not benefit from being forced to embrace Islam.
- Whoever disbelieves in Taghut and believes in Allah, then he has grasped the most trustworthy handhold that will never break. And Allah is All-Hearer, All-Knower. is in reference to, "Whoever shuns the rivals of Allah, the idols, and those that Shaytan calls to be worshipped besides Allah, whoever believes in Allah's Oneness, worships Him alone and testifies that there is no deity worthy of worship except Him, فَقَدِ اسْتَمْسَكَ بِالْعُرْوَةِ الْوُثْقَىٰ (then he has grasped the most trustworthy handhold). Therefore, this person will have acquired firmness (in the religion) and proceeded on the correct way and the straight path. Abu Al-Qasim Al-Baghawi recorded that Umar said, "Jibt means magic, and Taghut means Shaytan.

- Hazrat Umar's (RA) statement that Taghut is Shaytan is very sound, for this meaning includes every type of evil that the ignorant people of Jahiliyyah (pre Islamic era of ignorance) fell into, such as worshipping idols, referring to them for judgment, and invoking them for victory
- Allah's statement, then he has grasped the most trustworthy handhold that will never break, means, "He will have hold of the true religion with the strongest grasp." Allah equated this adherence to the firm handhold that never breaks because it is built solid and because its handle is firmly connected. Mujahid said, "The most trustworthy handhold is Iman (faith)."
- One who holds on to Islam firmly stays protected against destruction and deprivation. It was for this reason that such a person was likened to one who holds on firmly to the 'ring', the looped support of a strong rope, and thus manages to avoid falling down. As there is no danger of such a rope breaking apart and causing a fall, so there is no danger of destruction or loss in Islam -- should somebody just abandon the rope, that would be an entirely different matter. And should somebody abandon Islam itself, that would be an entirely different matter too. (Maulana Thanavi: Bayan al-Qur'an). This approach of Islam makes it clear that it does not force people to accept and enter Faith, rather far from it, by using it as a method of stopping oppression in the world, it hopes to establish justice and equity and peace and security.

إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَأْمُرُكُمْ أَنْ تُؤَدُّوا الْأَمَانَاتِ إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهَا وَإِذَا حَكَمْتُمْ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ أَنْ تَحْكُمُوا بِالْعَدْلِ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ نِعِمَّا يَعِظُكُمْ بِهِ ۗ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ سَمِيعًا بَصِيرًا ﴿النساء: 58﴾

- The background of the revelation: The first of the two verses cited above was revealed in the background of a particular event which related to the custodial service of the Ka'bah, an office of great honour even before the advent of Islam. Those who were appointed to serve the House of Allah in a particular area of responsibility were regarded as people of great prestige and distinction in the community.
- The Holy Quran says: إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَأْمُرُكُمْ. It means: 'Surely, Allah commands you to fulfill trust obligations towards those entitled to them.'
- The verse is addressed to everyone who holds anything in trust. This includes the masses and also those in authority.
- The functional outcome of the command in the verse is that everyone who holds anything in trust with him is duty-bound to see that trust obligations are faithfully fulfilled and that the rightful recipients have in their hands what is their due. amanah (trust obligation) is not simply limited to cash or kind which someone may have entrusted to someone else for safe-keeping until demanded, which is the most prevailing and commonly understood form of amanah. And the key to the Baytullah was not a financial asset. Instead, this key was a symbol of the office of the serving keeper of the Baytullah.

- This tells us that offices and ranks of government, whatever they may be, are all handed over to the recipients as trust from Allah. Those who receive it are its amin (trustees). This covers all officials and everyone else in authority who wields the powers of appointments and dismissals.
- The first sentence of this verse carries the command to fulfill trust obligations, while equity and justice have been enjoined in the second. Those who have been made responsible to judge between them are duty-bound to cast aside all these connections and give their decision guided by whatever be the dictate of truth, right and just.
- It has been clearly indicated that the real command and rule is from Allah Almighty. The offices of the government are not the rights of the residents of a country which could be distributed on the basis of the ratio of population. Man's rule on this earth can be legitimate only as a deputy or trustee.

Verse no 135 (Al Nisa)

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا كُونُوا قَوَّامِينَ بِالْقِسْطِ شُهَدَاءَ لِلَّهِ وَلَوْ عَلَىٰ أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَوِ الْوَالِدِينَ وَالْأَقْرَبِينَ ۚ إِن يَكُنْ غَنِيًّا أَوْ
فَقِيرًا فَلِلَّهِ أُولَىٰ ۖ فَلَا تَتَّبِعُوا الْهَوَىٰ أَنْ تَعْدِلُوا ۚ وَإِنْ تَلَوُّوا أَوْ تَعْرِضُوا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرًا ﴿١٣٥﴾
(النساء: 135)

Explanation

- In this verse of Surah Al-Nisa', all Muslims have been instructed to uphold justice and be true when appearing as witnesses.
- Besides, things which can become impediments to the establishment of justice or the availability of true evidence have been removed in a highly eloquent manner.
- The verse under reference opens with the words كُونُوا قَوَّامِينَ بِالْقِسْطِ (...be upholders of justice). The word, Qist, it means justice and fairness. The true sense of justice and fairness is that every holder of a right should be given his or her due in full. Taken generally, it includes the rights of Allah and all kinds of human rights as well. Inclusive in the thrust of the meaning of 'upholding justice' is that nobody shall inflict injustice on anybody; also that the perpetrator of injustice (zalim) shall be stopped from inflicting injustice (zulm) and the victim of injustice (mazlum) shall be supported;

- And also that appearing as witness shall not be avoided, if witness is needed to help the victim of injustice to have his or her usurped right back; and also that the witness shall be true and factual as it really is, whether for or against anyone; and also that those who holds the reins of authority and dispensation of justice in their hands shall treat both parties to the case before them, equally and equitably. There shall be no tilt of any sort toward any one of the two. Statements given by witnesses shall be heard carefully.

Al Ma'rij verse no. 24-25

وَالَّذِينَ فِي أَمْوَالِهِمْ حَقٌّ مَّعْلُومٌ لِّلسَّائِلِ وَالْمَحْرُومِ ﴿٢٥﴾ (المعارج: 24-25)

- And those in whose wealth there is a recognized right. For the one who asks, and for the deprived.
- Meaning, in their wealth is a determined portion for those who are in need.
- It is related by Abu Huraira (R.A.) that the Holy Prophet (SAWW) said that person of the meek and needy who is given a date or two, a morsal or two, without doubt such a person is meek and needy who is abstinent and asks not. (Bukhari and Muslim).
- Hazrat Musa'b bin abi Waqqas relates that Hazrat Sad opined that he has excellence over people beneath him, so the Holy Apostle (SAWW) said, that the help you receive and the sustenance you get that is merely on account of the infirm and weak. (Bukhari).
- Mahroom is one who is with short of resources to fulfill needs, or is unaware how to earn!
- Charity is a guarantee for the success in the world and salvation in the hereafter.
